

We came home to our new family on December 3rd and we are soooooo happy with our Moms and two big brothers. We are well taken care of and sleep through the night now! We have so many new toys to play with but what we like most is playing in our basket and tunnel. Mom and Mom are going to the bank on Monday because we are eating them out of house and home. We are not sure what we wanna be yet, girls or boys but our names are now "Emma" (I'm the one with the M marking on my head) and "Little" (coz I am still so tiny. Yes, Emma hogs all my food!) Here we are having a good time, as well as a picture of our brothers. "Whatty" looks like a cow and "Hunter" looks like our Dad!

*Mom (Dee) and Mom (Marion) say hi too!
