

"Midnight & Shadow"

Three years ago this August, I adopted Dori (now Midnight) and her 4 week old kitten. When I went to adopt, I was determined to adopt two kittens. But when I saw Midnight and her kitten (now Shadow), I instantly knew that they were the cats for me.

Once they were home, Midnight scouted out her new living space, and Shadow followed close behind her mother.

Almost three years later, they are the best of friends, and Shadow still follows her mother wherever she goes. They have brought me such happiness- Shadow walks me out to work in the morning, both greet me when I come home, and Midnight curls up in a little ball and sleeps next to me every night. Thank you so much for taking such good care of my two little girls until they found me.
